

CaNOE

Canadian Network for Ocean Education

Nominations for the 2016-2017 CaNOE Board of Directors now open!

What is CaNOE?

Canadian Network for Ocean Education (CaNOE) is a non-profit organization for the advancement of ocean literacy in Canada. With links to the ocean education, research, and commerce communities, CaNOE is unique in Canada for its ability to convene stakeholders for the advancement of ocean literacy. This convening power presents an opportunity for CaNOE to emerge as a leading voice on ocean literacy and ocean health in Canada. CaNOE is building a sustainable organization with purpose, vision and inclusive, welcoming values, and we are looking for members to join our team! Pick up a paddle and join the CaNOE Board!

Eligibility:

All members of CaNOE, in good standing are eligible to run for the Board of Directors (becoming a member is free! See <http://oceanliteracy.ca>). The Board consists of 12 directors. Directors are elected for a one-year term. The terms will begin June 2016 and end June 2017.

Skills required

At this time, the CaNOE Board would benefit from the following skills and expertise: finance and fundraising, legal experience, project management, board development and governance, workshop design, and teaching experience.

Positions Open:

President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Directors at Large

Process:

If you would like to run yourself, or know someone who would be great for one of these positions, please send us a 150 word bio (outlining who you are, what experience you would bring to CaNOE, and why you want to join the Board) and close-up/ head-shot photo to info@oceanliteracy.ca by May 23, 2016. Voting will be held at the Annual General Meeting on June 11, 2016 at the 2nd Annual Ocean Literacy Conference in Halifax, Nova Scotia.
